Akvo.org uses the PayPal Secure Payment™ system for donations.

With PayPal you may make donations via your country's accepted credit or debit cards, or through a PayPal account if you have one.

PayPal charges up to 3.9%+35 Euro cents of your donation in transaction fees. So if you donate 100 Euros, at least 95.75 Euros will go towards the selected project.

At this time, only residents of the following countries will be able to treat this donation as a tax-deductible charitable contribution. We are working hard to expand this list all the time!

- The Netherlands (Nederland)

And PayPal handles the currency conversion for you.

PayPal charges transaction fees of up to 3.9% of your donation amount + 35 Euro cents. So if you donate €100, at a minimum 95.75 will go to the selected project.

About Akvo.org

We are a non-profit foundation headquartered in the Netherlands. We help connect doers and donors to transform communities in some of the poorest parts of the world. The Akvo platform is open source and we encourage others to build on and improve these tools, or adapt the platform for other purposes.
